The WORD

Our 139th Year

For April 2007
Herndon, Virginia

Our Faith

Have the actual bones of Jesus and his family been found? That's the current question. A group of ossuaries were recently discovered in a subterranean "cave." And what really caused a stir is these ossuaries were inscribed with the names of Jesus, Mary, Joseph, etc. While this is fairly sensational, it has been noted that these were common names, and that there is no method for verifying, one way or another, if one of these ossuaries contains actual remains of the Jesus of Christian faith. We can only speculate.

Claims about Jesus of Nazareth – that he was/is the Son of God, God incarnate, miracle worker, Messiah, Christ, resurrected Savior, ascended Sovereign – raised questions from the very beginning. Our sacred writings (i.e., The Bible) make it clear that his closest associates "doubted." The religious establishment "refused to believe." The Apostles proclamations about him were viewed with suspicion. Through the ensuing years who he was (is), what he did (does), has been studied from every conceivable angle. Bottom line; there is no "proof." Some people believe, and some people don't.

However, even the most ardent believer must admit that the assertions about Jesus are fantastic. They defy natural law and press credibility to the limit. Was he the Supreme Being in the flesh? Did he heal people instantaneously? Did he create food out of nothing? Did he raise the dead? Did he rise from death, and ascend to Heaven? Eye witnesses say "yes." Believers say "yes." It is a matter of faith.

According to the Gospels people in his own time asked for proof, irrefutable signs and displays of his godness. And he was tempted – to turn stones into bread and feed all of the world's starving people, to throw himself down from the pinnacle of the Temple and prove, once and for all, that he is the holy one of God. Even as he hung on the cross spectators challenge him to "Come down from the cross." He was taunted, "Save yourself and us." Jesus himself realized that all the miracles he performed were not enough to convince those who just wouldn't believe.

When Pontius Pilate asked Jesus "What is truth?" Jesus was silent. Presumably there was nothing left to say. What words would convince this man? "The Way, the Truth, and the Life" stood before the Roman Procurator, but all he saw was a beaten man. cont. on pg2, col.1

Now the Green Blade Riseth

At the beginning of every spring, I think of my favorite scene from C.S. Lewis' book The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. Aslan, a great lion and the true king of Narnia, has been killed by the White Witch, and the children who love him are bereft. Suddenly, they hear a great crack and see that the stone table on which Aslan was sacrificed has broken in two. Aslan appears to them, raised from the dead. He greets the children and then plays with them in the meadow. Everywhere he leaps, new flowers spring up.

As I walk in the cool mornings and see new flowers in clusters on the grass, defying winter, I think, "Aslan has been here!" In this time of year as Lent gives way to Easter, we have the chance to reflect on what in our life has been dead and broken throughout the winter. One of our quieter Easter hymns, "Now the Green Blade Riseth" acknowledges that resurrection often comes before whatever is broken, dry, or dead has been hauled away. Signs of life poke through before the snow has completely melted. In the final verse of this hymn, we sing, "When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain, thy touch can call us back to life again, fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green." In this season, may we watch with each other for signs of new life springing up within us. When we see these signs, we can cry out with delight, "Alleluia! Christ is Risen! The Lord is Risen indeed, Alleluia."

Allen Will Be Leaving Us Soon

May 6th is Allen Pruitt's final Sunday at St. Timothy's. Allen came to us in the Fall of 2005, the beginning of his second year in Seminary, with a commitment to work 12 hours a week until his graduation. The Episcopal Church requires 2 years of field education with a trained and experienced clergy Supervisor and Lay Committee. Students practice and improve their liturgical, preaching, and leadership skills, receive feedback and evaluations. In the two years he has been with us Allen has received a lot from us, and given a lot in return. We are grateful for him, for his gifts and ministry, and we pray for him as he begins his ministry as a Priest of the Episcopal Church. Allen, go in peace to love and serve the Lord!

When Nicodemus questioned what the followers of Jesus were saying, Jesus said to him "It's like the wind. You do not know where it comes from or where it goes." But we can see the effect of wind in the rustling of leaves. My faith, therefore, is not based on archeological proof. Nor does the lack of archeological proof threaten my faith. I believe because of the miracles in my own life. I believe because, even if I can't see God, I see what I consider undeniable evidence of God's love. Every way I examine my life, the lives of people I know, life in general, it unfailingly adds up to what I profess in the Nicene and Apostle's Creed.

We will never prove one way or another that Jesus is, or is not, The Christ. As Paul said, "We live by faith." We live also with the promise that we will one day see Him "face to face" in the Kingdom of Heaven. We can enjoy the dialogue, the probing, questioning, testing for what it is - humanity's hunger and thirst for knowledge, our search for signs, our desire for proof. And we can still be secure in our faith.

Rebuilding Together 2007

The Men of Saint Timothy's (MOST) and the Service Ministry invite you to participate in the Rebuilding Together Program. St. Timothy's will sponsor one of approximately 70 local home improvement projects. This year's event is scheduled for April 28 and 29.

This local service project is open to anyone in the congregation 14 or older, all skill levels are welcome. Everyone is encouraged to participate. At this time we do not have our assigned project but we are asked to supply 30-40 workers to complete as much of the work as possible on the scheduled weekend. We will have more details soon. We have requested a project in the Herndon/Reston area if available.

The Rebuilding Together program is a nationwide effort to repair housing for the needy, elderly or handicapped. The local effort is coordinated by the RPJ Housing Development Corporation, a nonprofit organization whose mission is to develop and preserve affordable housing in the Washington Metropolitan area.

For more information please see the display in Henry Hall or contact Keith Pinkard at 703-758-2583 or email mapnbuild@cox.net.

Affordable Housing and Community

The week of April 21-28, 2007, is Affordable Housing Week in Northern Virginia, culminating with Rebuilding Together, on April 28 & 29, where a team from St. Timothy's will make much-needed home improvements for a local family in need. The Service Ministry, expressing a faith call for affordable housing, would like to direct your attention to the Northern Virginia Affordable Housing Alliance website: <http://www.nvaha.org/>

We are all entitled to a place at the table. People of faith and other citizens are joining together to preserve the diversity of Northern Virginia. Therefore, please consider the following:

- Make affordable housing a priority in your prayers, thoughts and actions.
- Stand together in faith in calling upon our elected officials to treat affordable housing as a critical need demanding immediate attention.
- Share your time, talent, ideas, plans and resources for preserving and expanding affordable housing.
- Cooperate with like-minded real estate agents and agencies, fraternal and service organizations, faith communities and governmental authorities in these efforts.
- Support structures, projects and procedures for the swift use of existing funds which have been collected for affordable housing.
- Develop and participate in support systems, such as mentoring services, that help tenants of affordable housing avoid or navigate crises.

Thank you Hypothermia Shelter Volunteers!

We did it! St. Timothy's joyfully volunteered to staff 4 nights at the Hypothermia Shelter and provided 12 meals for our homeless neighbors in March. (This was accomplished with virtually no arm-twisting, which made this accomplishment all the sweeter!) Thank you to Latoya Kilpatrick, Stephanie Loomis, Chris and Cheryl Brock, Maria LaWalt, Keith Pinkard, MOST, Anne Curtis, Lydia Gough, Patricia Rhoads, Tricia Uzialko, Sue Van Meers, Caroline Arlington, Rebecca Page and family, Judy and Jerry Pasquarello, Paul and Judy Conroy, Jill Norcross, Tricia Mussante, Dianna Traub, Alain Bashore, Bonnie Bunting, Susan Brittle, Lorna Moran, Julie Brunson, Carolyn Hamm, the Youth Group and anyone else we forgot. Reston Interfaith and their partners from Fairfax County invite all the volunteers to a reception on Thursday, April 12, 6 – 7 pm at the hypothermia prevention program room in the North County Human Services Building. Your incredible contributions of time, food and numerous other donations have ensured the success of this program, so they would like to thank you, learn about your experiences and introduce you to upcoming programs and needs that you might be interested in getting involved with. RSVP's are requested, but not required to Mandy Guernsey at Mandy.Guernsey@restoninterfaith.org or 571/323-9565.

The Magnetic Church Conference

There will be a Magnetic Church conference held May 18 & 19, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to learn how to attract, welcome and retain new members to our church. Registration is $30.00 per person, or $25.00 per person if prepaid and preregistered in groups of 5 or more. Fee includes all hand-out materials, refreshments and Saturday lunch. Forms with more information and to register are on the table in Henry Hall.

Fellow Parishioners

You usually get this request from Joanne Rehm...and I'm sure she is walking for breast cancer somewhere in North Carolina.

You might remember that I walked for this cause last year and only did half of a marathon (13 miles)...I had some injuries from falling that day, so I didn't come back and finish on Sunday. I'm going to do this again this May (no falls)...and, of course, I'm still raising funds!!

You can contribute two ways:

1) Give or mail me a donation by cash or check (made out to AWBC)...my address is 1546 Northgate Square, #22, Reston, VA 20190.

2) Donate to my page on the AVON WALK website (www.avonwalk.org):

--select DONATE under the pictures

--select "donate to a participant"

--select "Washington DC, April 29-30"

--type in Caroline Arlington, enter Find Walker, scroll to the bottom of that page and select my name...this will put you on my personal page

--select pink box "Support Me"

This is a very secure site...there have never been any problems reported.

I'm a breast cancer survivor of 9 years now! I'm committed to AVON because they put the money we raise right to work...they start handing out checks at the closing ceremony on Sunday. Every 3 minutes a woman is diagnosed with breast cancer. An estimated 3 million women are living with breast cancer and 1 million of them don't yet know it. Great strides are being made in detecting and treating this terrible disease, but early detection is so important for surviving the diagnosis.

Give to my walk or any other effort out there to help further research and support resources! Thank you...

—Caroline Arlington

March / April Agape -

The March and April Agape is dedicated to St. Timothy's three Mission groups: the Youth Group's Dunggannon trip, the Lakota Mission Team, and the Habitat for Humanity International/Domestic Team. The three groups will benefit greatly from your generous donations. Below are brief descriptions of the Mission groups.

The Youth Group and their annual trip to the Dunggannon region in southwest Virginia. Dunggannon is one of the poorest regions in the state. Here, the Youth spend a week renovating substandard houses and developing interpersonal skills that will stay with them for a lifetime.

The Lakota Mission Team and their annual trip to the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. Pine Ridge is one of the poorest counties in the country. The team spends a week on the reservation, developing relationships, experiencing the Native American life style and repairing houses in the area. This year the Lakota Team will make two trips, one in the spring and one in the fall.

The Habitat for Humanity International/Domestic Team. Last year the team helped rebuild an area still recovering from storm damage from over a year ago. Two years ago the team spent a week in Botswana, Africa building two homes for families.

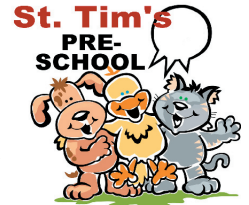

The Service Ministry asks your support for these three groups of dedicated individuals who are striving to make a difference in the world. During March and April, you will hear from representatives from these groups who will tell you about their mission and their individual experiences. When you get the yellow Agape envelopes in a Sunday bulletin, you will be able to designate your donation to be split equally among the teams or you may specify an individual team as the beneficiary of your donation. The groups thank you for your support and look forward to another year's journey into the world as members of your congregation, to help with their hands and to spread the love of Christ among those who need their help the most. —Keith Pinkard

Agape Notes and beyond...

During the Season of Lent, meditations and reflections of my relationship with God often bring me back to St. Timothy's parish and His grace that I receive from this pulpit and my church family.

These words, "...that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways..." speak to me with such profound direction, that sometimes I can hardly whisper them. Because that is what we strive for and that is what we do. And when we can't do it ourselves, we help others.

Most recently I was energized to this commitment in the response to our Jan-Feb Agape offerings for the Society for the Increase of Ministry: SIM. This congregation will make a $1,500 donation to help seminarians, who after graduation, will go on to lead others to "...walk in His way..." What a delight to know that long after these words are spoken this Sunday, they will continue to be carried to many diverse neighborhoods because of your belief in the future of our church. Thank you for your support. Happy Easter! —Dianna Traub, Service Ministry

Update on our Pastoral Care Ministry

Most of you know that the Pastoral Care Ministry provides meals and prayers for our parishioners in need. Our Helping Hands, Shawl Ministry, and Stephen Ministers are there for you. Did you also know that we:

- Provide transportation to doctor appointments, church, small errands, etc.
- Visit the homebound or hospitalized. We might play a game; read a book, magazine, or the newspaper; or just provide some companionship
- Walk a pet
- Rake the leaves
- Baby-sit during the day so Mom can actually take a bit of time for herself
- Do the grocery shopping

I don't think we will do windows, but we are up to helping with almost anything that needs to be done. It's okay to ask for help. There are many hands that are willing to hold yours. Let the clergy know or email pastoralcare@saint-timothys.org.

CE Corner

The Monday morning Adult Bible Study will continue after we return from the parish retreat at Shrine Mont, April 16. The program will continue as requested by the participants. Contact Rev. Leslie if you wish to join this popular class.

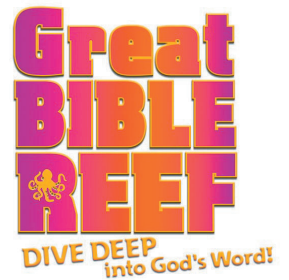

-- Marybeth Henry, CE Chair

Adult Sunday School!!!

That's not a typo up there! Starting April 22 there will be an Adult Sunday School class. It will be meeting at the same time as the regular Sunday School, starting just before the 11:00 service and ending with all the other Sunday School classes. The lessons (If that is too academic, how about discussions?) will come from the Bible, liturgy, and maybe from the news or the comics. We'll try to learn something about ourselves, our faith, and have fun too. So plan on coming. There is a sign-up sheet in Henry Hall or you may contact Shirley Ratliff at saratliff@earthlink.net or call 703-444-1071.
