

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

After the fifty days of Easter the next great festival of the Church is Pentecost (meaning literally the "fiftieth day"). Pentecost - also called the Feast of Weeks - was originally the Jewish celebration of the first harvest; later and additionally a commemoration of Moses giving God's law to the people. Christians mark the fiftieth day after Easter as the day God's Holy Spirit was bestowed upon the disciples, with the "gift of tongues" (various languages) for telling the Good News. In some Churches, Pentecost is also called Whitsunday (actually "white Sunday") in reference to the robes worn by those who are Baptized on this day. However the Chancel and clergy are adorned in red to honor the "tongues of fire" that appeared on the disciples' heads when Christ breathed the Holy Spirit on and into them.

According to "The Catechism," the teaching of the Church [BCP page 852-853], "The Holy Spirit is the Third Person of the Trinity, God at work in the world and in the Church even now. The Holy Spirit is revealed in the Old Covenant as the giver of life, the One who spoke through the prophets. The Holy Spirit is revealed in the New Covenant as the One who leads us into all truth and enables us to grow in the likeness of Christ. We recognize the presence of the Holy Spirit when we confess Jesus Christ as Lord and are brought into love and harmony with God, with ourselves, with our neighbors, and with all creation. We recognize truths to be taught by the Holy Spirit when they are in accord with the Scriptures."

Incidentally, though we refer to the Holy Spirit as "he" when we recite the Nicene Creed, all Biblical references to the Holy Spirit are actually feminine or neuter, never masculine.

On May 31st we will celebrate Pentecost, the gift of God's Holy Spirit for the people of God, and the gifts we have been given to spread the love of God in Jesus Christ.

~Fr. Brad

Time of Fullness

May is a month of fullness both in nature and in the life of the Church. This year, liturgically, we'll be deep into the season of Easter all month and will build to an explosion of the Spirit at Pentecost. Our program year is nearing completion as ministries plan final celebrations to celebrate our work together, lay groundwork for the fall, and honor members of our community who will soon graduate. At the end of this month, we'll cheer Fr. Brad with our love and prayers into his well-deserved summer sabbatical. We'll also welcome our new seminarian Peter Doddema into the full life of this community. On May 26, he will begin a 40-hour-per-week, 8-week summer internship at St. Tim's as a prelude to his time with us next year.

In this time of fullness, may we remember that the Risen Christ himself gives us grace and power, as the Church and individually, to do God's work through the Holy Spirit. He fills us with what we need and allows us to give what we have to others. May we take time to ground ourselves in prayer and to consider these words from the monk and author Thomas Merton:

"What truly matters is not how to get the most out of life, but how to recollect yourself so that you can fully give yourself."

~Rev. Leslie

Rector's Sabbatical

The Church provides one week of sabbatical for every year of service, to be used every seventh year for physical, spiritual, and intellectual refreshment. Hence, I will be on sabbatical (including four weeks of vacation) from June 1st through August 23rd. I plan to spend time with my family, rest (clergy tend to work 6-7 days a week, every week), catch up on household chores (it gives me a sense of satisfaction), and study. I have consulted with members of the Virginia Theological Seminary faculty and our own “uncle David,” The Rev. Dr. David Schlafer, about study resources. There are several books on my reading list, one of which I have already started – The Historical Jesus, The Life of a Mediterranean Peasant by John Dominic Crossan. His book is celebrated as “The first comprehensive determination of who Jesus was, what he did, what he said.” The author has done an extraordinary amount of research in ancient documents and recent studies. It is the kind of book that would put a lot of people to sleep but which I find enormously fascinating. He makes the first century Middle East come alive. I’ll bore you with esoteric insights in subsequent sermons.

In advance, I want to thank our professional staff: Parish Administrator Carol Frost, Associate Rector Leslie Chadwick, Music Director Peter Waggoner, Sextons Phyllis Hogan and Josephine Martin; our office volunteers: Natalie Dubishar, Nikki O’Malley, Rebecca Page, Bill Sanger, Allyson Showalter, Rick Wilson, Thelma Hubert, Midori Yanagihara, and Genevieve Zetlan; our Vergers Michael Cook and Jane Perry; our Stephen Leaders and Ministers; and our summer intern/seminarian Peter Doddema – for all of their help and support. I’d like to also thank the countless helpers and ministry leaders who do innumerable important things, much of which is unnoticed. Please keep them in your prayers as they carry on in the Rector’s absence.

and refresh you.

It has been eight years since my last sabbatical and I am ready. I need, we all need, times for re-creation and renewal. We need to feed our minds and spirits as we do our bodies. I will miss you; I will miss our weekly reunions, conversations, and Holy Communion. But I realize this “time of rest” is vitally important. I will pray for you every day – for your health and happiness – and that God renew your mind and soul. I hope you have some Sabbath time this summer. God bless

~ Fr. Brad

A Letter from John Schmitz

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I wanted to update you on where I am in life and the ordination process. First, I am engaged to be married to Jenny Rain on May 30. About a week before that, on May 21, I will graduate from VTS [Virginia Theological Seminary] having completed all the requirements for the Masters of Divinity (MDiv). I also have a job this coming fall. I will be serving as a chaplain at National Cathedral School (NCS), and the job entails a variety of functions—liturgical, pedagogical, and pastoral. This summer Jenny and I will be settling into our house in Herndon, and, apart from reading AP exams, I will be here most of the time and will visit St. Timothy’s when I am able. I have been serving at St. John’s, Centreville, and I have thoroughly enjoyed my many experiences there. I will find out later where I will continue my parish work as part of the chaplaincy job at NCS.

I also wanted to thank all of you for your generosity over these past three years. Without spiritual support and financial aid, I do not see how I could have attended seminary. I am indebted to St. Timothy’s and I know how important communities of faith are to fostering and maintaining love of God and service to others. You will continue to be in my prayers and please know you are always welcome to contact me about any questions you might have.

God’s peace,
John Schmitz

St. Timothy's 2009 Annual Parish

Retreat

This year's Parish Retreat was held at Shrine Mont in Orkney Springs, VA on March 27-29, 2009. We had 50 folks with us this year (up 16 from last year). What a great time of rest and renewal, as well as a time of laughter and fellowship. Shrine Mont, our Diocesan Retreat Center, is actually a group of cottages and a grand old hotel (which is listed in the National Register of Historic Places), nestled in the beautiful Shenandoah Mountains. We are truly blessed to have this wonderful gathering place, which is also the home of The Cathedral Shrine of the Transfiguration, an open-air cathedral of the Diocese of Virginia.

Friday evening was spent in the usual way, getting settled in and chatting. We made nametags out of crafty materials (card stock, stickers, glitter, etc.) and then enjoyed playing our version of the old game show, Let's Make a Deal (fitting in with the weekend theme of "Opening Doors").

The theme for the retreat was inspired by the book "Open the Door: A Journey to the True Self," by Joyce Rupp. Cheryl Brock designed and led a program Saturday to help us learn about our own spiritual and emotional doors. While some participated in the group discussion, others sat on the porch and chatted in rocking chairs or just relaxed. The children (we had 12 of them participate this year!) spent the morning with Caroline Arlington, Susy Nixon, Katie Mazza, and Leslie Chadwick, taking a hike, playing on the playground, and decorating props and rehearsing for the evening's Talentless Show.

The adult program reconvened for a short afternoon session Saturday and then there was rest/free time. Some took hikes, did crafts or knitted, worked on crossword puzzles, shopped in the bookstore, and many just sat in rockers to chat or took a nap. Some of our younger ones enjoyed outdoor play, while the rain thankfully held off.

The evening's Talentless Show was, as usual, the highlight of the weekend. There was a lot of laughter and groaning at bad jokes, but also plenty of talent. Of course, the Hallelujah Honeys stole the show with their poise, beauty and talent (and there were a few new members this year!). The night concluded with many of us sitting on the porch chatting (and eventually getting scolded by Cheryl when we were being too loud after "quiet time" had started).

On Sunday, we held a hymn sing with Peter and a worship service led by Leslie, and after a delicious lunch of fried chicken and butter beans (a Shrine Mont tradition), everyone sadly packed up and headed for home. As always, the food was great and very filling, the rooms were comfortable and the fellowship was amazing.

I hope you will all plan to join us next year for this wonderful time apart and a time of friendship and renewal.

St. Timothy's is a Caring Community

Easter Sunday was a wonderful celebration, thanks to everyone who helped make it happen – choirs and musicians, altar guild, flower guild, acolytes, lay Eucharistic ministers, vergers, ushers, greeters, sextons, parish administrator, music director, clergy, nursery attendants, the Boy Scouts who made our temporary signs, and of course you who attended one of the services, who prayed, recited, and sang your faith! More than six hundred people came to praise God for the resurrection of Jesus Christ! Easter Sunday at St. Timothy's was glorious.

An Easter Service

However, there are actually more than a thousand individuals in our Church family. So, unfortunately, we don't always notice who is missing on a Sunday morning, or who might want or need help to get through a crisis. Your clergy and Stephen Ministers would like very much to know when you need our support; please share your "ups and downs" with us. Call or email your clergy lesliec@saint-timothys.org. (703-437-3790 ext. 12) or bradr@saint-timothys.org. (703-437-3790 ext. 11).

Boy Scout Troop 159 Watch: Camping in the Rain

The Drizzling Rain

The campout was still fun, however, regardless of the persistent drizzle. The patrol of new Scouts went on a short hike, and after dinner we all had a campfire. The food was delicious, but the adult patrol wouldn't share their cookies with us.

Read next month's issue and find out about the caving trip: 45 stories below!

In March Troop 159 went camping at Sky Meadows Park. The Scoutmaster chose a walk-in campsite, so we had to hike $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile, which was only grueling because of our 80+ lb. packs.

Camp E.D.G.E will bring your children closer to God as they discover that God is with them at all times, in all places, and in all circumstances, ready to help them and guide them. They will also come to know Jesus as their friend and Savior who went to the extreme for them.

Day 1: Trek to the Promised Land: God is with me. I will stay close to God. (Joshua 1:1-11; 3:1-4:18)

Day 2: Trek to Bethlehem: God guides me. I will follow. (Matthew 2:1-12)

Day 3: Trek to the Pharisee's House: God teaches me. I will learn. (Luke 14:7-14)

MS Capital Challenge Walk

The Multiple Sclerosis National Capital Challenge Walk is October 3-4, 2009. Brocks' Walkers is a group of almost 20 church members and friends who have come together to take the challenge. In 2007, we participated in the Challenge Walk and raised $11,000 in about 6 weeks. We have started earlier this year and hope to beat the amount raised in 2007. We need to raise $1,500 for each person who will walk the 2 day, 50 kilometers course. Our goal is to raise money for the society and participate in the challenge walk. The money is used to fund research, to facilitate professional education and to provide programs and services to help people with MS and their families move their lives forward. We are very excited about this undertaking and hope for support and encouragement from our friends and families.

We would like to extend an invitation to you to join us at our upcoming fundraising events. Our first fundraiser is the MS Capital Challenge Walk Dinner on Wednesday, May 20, 2009 from 5:30 – 7:00 p.m. at the Herndon United Methodist Church in Herndon. Please join us for fellowship and good food. More information will follow for upcoming fundraising events:

- Jimmy's Old Towne Tavern Night – Thursday, June 11, 2009
- Yard Sale at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church – Saturday, July 11, 2009
- Ladies Night Out – TBD
- Ladies Tea - TBD

Also, please consider volunteering to help out at these planned events or in any other way you can. The positions available on the team are walker, crew member, and volunteer. Please check out our team website by using the below link or by going to www.msandyou.org, look for the Challenge Walk and then choose Team Information. http://main.nationalmssociety.org/site/TR/Challenge/D/CWChallengeWalkEvents?team_id=151171&pg=team&fr_id=10771&et=y8l96_H7NJWPoAEPPN0r4Q..&s_tafld=104989. In God's Service

The Service Ministry presents the following giving opportunity to the parishioners of St Timothy's. We ask that you prayerfully consider the needs of this community organization and how you might support them. The Jeanie Schmidt Free Clinic has been supported by St. Timothy's since 2002. Contributions may be sent to JSFC, PO Box 5143, Herndon, VA 20172.

Dear St. Timothy's Congregation,

The Jeanie Schmidt Free Clinic (JSFC) needs your help. Twice a year, fall and spring, the clinic appeals to its supporters for contributions. As the economy has worsened, the clinic has seen a dramatic increase in requests for medical care and related services. At the same time the economic crisis has made fund raising more difficult and caused the clinic budget to be severely strained. That is why I am asking for your help.

Could you please consider accepting our invitation to a Stay at Home Ball? I know you as a concerned, caring congregation. I also know your time is valuable. By sending JSFC whatever amount you are able, you will make free health care possible for those who are most at risk in our community. Then kick back and enjoy yourself.

Make your evening a memorable event by arranging something special for yourself, knowing your contribution is making a difference in the life of someone who really needs your help. Make it even more special by contacting a friend or family member to explain what you are doing for JSFC and why, and that you wanted to share this special occasion with them.

Thank you for everything you do for others and thank you in advance if you are able to participate in the JSFC Stay at Home Ball. Together, you and I can make a difference.

Sincerely,

Meagan Ulrich

Stewardship of People

We are grateful to God and this congregation for the response to last year's stewardship campaign: Abundant Giving, Abundant Life. Our congregation has responded with a 5% increase in pledges, which has allowed St. Timothy's to fund priorities identified by the vision budget process initiated by the Vestry last year. That process increased member participation in defining the needs and concerns of the many ministries of our church, and allowed the Vestry to define more accurately our congregation's priorities.

The central theme of Abundant Giving, Abundant Life is becoming Christ-centered rather than self-centered. As a Christ-centered community, we choose to focus on Ministry – activity that expresses and spreads our faith – since it is Ministry that sets us apart from others who do “good works.” That focus was clearly identified in our vision budget process. The increase in pledges has allowed us to adopt a 2009 budget that includes the following:

Service Ministry	$3,000.00
Music Ministry	$6,900.00
Christian Education	$2,500.00
Youth Group	$4,000.00
Hospitality Ministry	$2,200.00
Pastoral Care	$500.00
Communications Ministry	$700.00
Open Arms Ministry (formerly Evangelism)	$700.00
Accessibility Ministry	$500.00
Stewardship Ministry	$2,000.00
Stephen Ministry	$2,500.00
Worship/Altar Guild	$3,120.00

We want to build on last year's successful stewardship campaign by expanding our focus to stewardship of people. It is an area at which St. Timothy's excels: we provide meeting space each week to over 20 twelve-step organizations that help people overcome addictions; our members support numerous charitable organizations including LINK, The Closet, the Loudoun Abused Women's Shelter, Reston Interfaith, the Hypothermia Shelter, the Jeanie Schmidt Free Clinic, among many others; we send members on annual mission trips to the Lakota Indian Reservation and to Dungannon; we provide an excellent Pre-School for the community; we sponsor numerous organizations such as Boy Scouts and math tutoring. Stewardship of people includes not only the service ministries just mentioned, but all of the Ministries listed above. In the coming weeks we will be highlighting the many ways that our members provide stewardship of people, be it through music or teaching or Stephen Ministry, to name but a few examples.

Interest in Protecting the Environment is Dropping

A new poll shows that people who once put a huge emphasis on the government's green efforts now have other issues they care about more. In late January 2009, the latest Pew Research Center poll shows that the economy and job market have jumped to the top of the priority list for most people. In January 2008, 75 percent of Americans polled said that the economy should be a top priority, and in a year's time, that has jumped to 85 percent. On the other hand, however, protecting the environment has fallen from 56 percent a year ago to just 41 percent today. Unfortunately, this points to a disturbing trend. As people are more focused on job security and retirement funds, there appears to be less thought given to continuing care of God's Creation. Why is there a trade-off? Indeed, many environment-friendly steps actually save money -- water, electricity, and gas conservation all could save a family hundreds of dollars (thousands?) a year. Why can't the economy and the environment both be equally important? (A Message from St. Timothy's Steward of Creation)

New Registered Members for April 2009

The following individuals became registered members of St. Timothy's in April:

Dewaine Norris

Molly Norris

Daphne Maillard

Katie Mazza

Registered members are baptized, confirmed, or received at this church or are baptized in another congregation and transfer their membership to St. Timothy's. Membership has its privileges: you can vote in St. Timothy's church elections, be elected a member of St. Timothy's Vestry, or register your child early for St. Timothy's fabulous preschool. If you would like to become a registered member of St. Timothy's, please complete and return a Membership Transfer Form (available in the church office) or the form can also be accessed at www.saint-timothys.org.

Ushers Needed

Ushers are needed for the 11:00 am service. We would ask you to serve approximately once a month. If you would like to volunteer your time to this worthy calling, please contact Jim Wallis at 703-478-3390 or email him at jimwwiii@aol.com.

Welcome, Dewaine and Molly Norris!

Wherever in the world they happen to be, Dewaine and Molly Norris quietly and intentionally seek out ways to make a positive difference in the lives of others. A quote, included at the bottom of Dewaine's e-mails, reflects this guiding principle:

You don't have to make the headlines to make a difference.
– S. Truett Cathy, founder of Chick-Fil-A

This recurring theme has yielded many exciting results and is part of the reason that the couple has chosen St. Timothy's as their new church home. I recently had the opportunity to talk with Dewaine and Molly about how they happened to come to St. Timothy's, and what they found when they arrived. Even though we were sitting on plastic chairs in a Sunday School room, I instantly felt "at home" – warmly welcomed into a cozy living room by gracious friends. Their quiet generosity of spirit comes shining through.

Dewaine and Molly have lived all over the world, including several places in the DC Metro area. Fair Oaks is currently home base, chosen for its proximity to Molly's work in the Fairfax County government. Molly blends CPA training with a commitment to outreach, working with the financing side of affordable housing for people in need. Dewaine owns a consulting firm dedicated to providing innovative marketing and sales support to a variety of industries and clients. Both love their work.

They confess that they are still getting settled in the apartment. Exciting events, such as brand-new "really cute" grandson Tilden, have taken priority over unpacking and getting pictures hung.

Dewaine and Molly began "church shopping" after moving to the apartment. Criteria included: active in the community, good messages, friendliness, and not self-centered but more outwardly focused. St. Timothy's was one of three churches equidistant to their new home. In addition, an article about St. Tim's in the Virginia Diocesan e-Communiqué prompted a Google search and a visit to St. Timothy's website. The couple decided to attend a 2008 Christmas service, and stayed. "We liked it. The people seemed to be friendly, we liked Brad and Leslie, and it seemed to have the other things we were seeking."

As Leslie admiringly exclaims, "Dewaine and Molly are wonderful, interesting people who value community – they have jumped right in!" Dewaine has joined Education for Ministry (EfM). In his words, "I like the EfM program. I have wanted to do this for a long time and have never had the opportunity." Molly has joined the Shawl Ministry, which she thoroughly enjoys...although due to work commitments and Pilates, she is unable to make every meeting. And as a new member of St. Tim's, Dewaine is also taking part in the "Open Arms Ministry." They enjoy the 8:00 a.m. service because it opens the rest of the day to other activities. Molly says, "We feel very comfortable here. Everyone has been really nice!"

Wherever they travel, the couple actively looks for opportunities to give back to the community. While serving with the Peace Corps in Ukraine, these opportunities included working with a support organization for entrepreneurs and small businesses and teaching at a small college, as well as being thoroughly involved in other aspects of Kirovograd, the community in which they lived. As active members of their Florida parish, opportunities included launching an outreach initiative to answer the question, "Who in the community could use the money that we want to donate?"

Outside St. Tim's, a current interest is Angel Food Ministries, a non-profit, non-denominational food co-op that works with local host sites to help people stretch their food dollars. Centerpointe Church at Fair Oaks is now a new host site, and Dewaine and Molly have jumped in.

"We try to make a difference – it's one of the reasons we went to Ukraine. We like to stay busy, prefer to work in the background, and don't care about getting credit as long as something gets done."

In addition, Dewaine and Molly "always try to take advantage of opportunities" to travel. Extensive travel overseas has included trips through Sweden, Norway and Finland by train, and Dewaine's stay in St. Petersburg to work on his Russian. Trips in this country have included frequent visits to family, as well as tracing the Lewis & Clark Trail from St. Louis to the Pacific Ocean – in a Miata!

If you have not yet had an opportunity to meet Dewaine and Molly, please introduce yourself and welcome this remarkable couple to St. Timothy's.

Consider all the paths to St. Timothy's, taken by parishioners over the past 140+ years. Our stories are as varied as our gifts! This article is intended to offer a small insight into two of those paths, and to provide a fresh perspective on our outreach efforts. If you are relatively new to St. Tim's and would like to share your story, or if you would like to introduce someone new to the community via The WORD, our monthly newsletter, please contact Elaine Horsfield (ehorsfield@cox.net), Communications Ministry Chair.
