

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

The WORD

Our 136th Year

For October 2005

Herndon, Virginia

A Wider View

—Fr. Brad

I don't often recite a portion of our Diocesan Canons but here is one that has a lot of my attention lately. Canon 6, Section 2 reads "The Bishop shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, one Priest in each Region as the Dean thereof. A Dean shall serve at the pleasure of the Bishop, but in no event for more than four consecutive years, and shall be the official representative of the Bishop to the Region."

I, your rector, am the new Dean of Region V. My area of responsibility includes St. John's McLean, St. Dunstan's McLean, St. Thomas' McLean, Holy Cross Dunn Loring, Holy Comforter Vienna, St. Francis' Great Falls, St. Anne's Reston, and of course St. Timothy's Herndon.

It is an honor to be Dean, and an important responsibility. The Deans (there are 15 of us in this Diocese) meet regularly with the Bishop. He listens while we report on the status of the parishes in our Region, then we listen while the Bishop reports on the status of the Diocese. The politics of the Church are laid on the table. We examine who we are, what we are doing (or not doing, as the case many be), in light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It is illuminating.

At my first meeting on September 21st I was reminded that we are failing in our faith: our stewardship is lackluster, our witness is unconvincing, our response to people in distress – near and far – leaves a lot to be desired, and our differences on certain social issues/understandings of Scripture set us apart. Even so, by the grace of God we are also succeeding in our faith. Sometimes in spite of us, often in and through us, the Good News is proclaimed and lived – often quite remarkably. God's Church is a wonder.

Through this new ministry as Dean of Region V a larger perspective has come into view. I am reminded that St. Timothy's is part of a Region, part of a Diocese (196 congregations now in the Diocese of Virginia, and growing), part of a national Church (the Episcopal Church of the United States with 1.5 million members), part of the Anglican Communion (the second largest Christian body in the world), and part of the global Christian family (one-third of the world's population)! This is both humbling, and uplifting. The challenge is to remain connected.

In my new ministry as Dean I will convey more

Serve On The Vestry And Make A Difference!

On Sunday, January 8th our Church family will elect four new members to our Church's governing board, the Vestry. The Vestry is a wonderful opportunity to get involved in the life of our Church. A term is three years, with one meeting per month on the fourth Monday of the month. Each Vestry member serves as a liaison to one of our ministries and also meets with them, usually once per month. Members of the Vestry work and pray together to ensure that all decisions are conducted in a manner pleasing to God. And we'd like you to consider becoming a candidate. If you are interested please speak with any of the current members (we are listed on the back of the Sunday bulletin). By early November we would like to have a brief biographical sketch of all our candidates, notes about their spiritual interests, and a digital picture. We will then present the slate of candidates to our Church family no less than 30 days before our Annual Parish Meeting on January 8th. Please respond to Lili Soto-Harmon a sotoharmon@aol.com.

Thank you for your devotion to Jesus Christ and his Church!

Regional, Diocesan, National Church, and Anglican Communion news than we have had in the past. I am learning that there is a lot going on out there, and we will have to decide what role God is calling us to play in these larger theaters. I appreciate your support and prayers.

And, I get a new title. I am now The Very Reverend Brad Rundlett. I don't know who comes up with these; it sounds awfully pretentious, like some people are more reverend than others (Bishops, for example, are addressed as The Right Reverend which sounds to me like someone else must be The Wrong reverend, or God forbid, The Left Reverend). Oh well, you can still call me Brad, or Father Brad if you prefer. But don't call me The Very Reverend because I may start believing it.

Fr. Brad

A Collect in Time of Disaster

“Lord, God of the Universe, Creator and Sustainer of all life:

grant us the serenity to respond to disaster in bold faith, seeking not certainty, but rather the assurance of your abiding presence.

“Grant us hope when we spiral into despair and fill our broken hearts with the love with which you surround us.

“As we rebuild, guide each hammer and nail with a ring of hope; bless each bandage and conversation with the balm of healing and strengthen each resolve with the blessed assurance that all manner of thing shall be well, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.”

KATRINA & RITA Challenge

St. Timothy's Role

We have been struggling with our response to the immediate victims of hurricanes Katrina and Rita. I have had conversations with people who are or will be stationed there, people transporting supplies, providing emergency medical services, coordinating local help for displaced people, Church members who have family in hurricane ravaged areas, clergy from Louisiana and Houston, our Diocesan staff, members of other denominations, and folks from St. Timothy's who just want to help. We have been sending funds to Episcopal Relief and Development, but we haven't had other, more direct and personal, avenues thus far.

This is unlike any challenge we have faced in my tenure as your rector. There are short-term and long-term issues, necessitating well-coordinated responses. The repercussions of these two enormous and devastating hurricanes are rippling out far and wide. For example, we cannot expect gas prices to go significantly lower in the near future (which affects all of us). And home heating fuel costs (predicted to increase by 70% this winter) will wreak havoc on household budgets. We will certainly receive more requests for help with utility bills than ever before, probably food costs, pharmaceuticals, rent and mortgage payments too. This could be a very tough winter.

Your clergy and Service ministers are still pursuing lots of possibilities. And we'd be glad to hear from you about any other ways we can help our neighbors through this terrible crisis. Email Fr. Brad (bradr@saint-timothys.org) with any leads or suggestions you have. Please continue to give what you can to Episcopal Relief and Development (ERD), and the Rector's Discretionary Fund. Pray. And share your inspirations, ideas, leads with your clergy and service ministers.

Reston Interfaith to Coordinate Services for Katrina Victims in our Community

The devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina will last for years. Your support for the national relief efforts that will rebuild Louisiana, Mississippi and other affected areas, and your commitment to roll up your sleeves here at home will help us speed that recovery. In Fairfax County, a coalition of government, schools, PTAs, businesses and nonprofits including Red Cross and Reston Interfaith has come together to serve the families who are relocating to our area – with your help.

The first phase of recovery here involves Red Cross and Fairfax County government providing immediate cash assistance and assessments. Phase Two involves matching these individuals and families with community-based resources and support including housing, financial assistance, jobs, and counseling. Reston Interfaith is one of several nonprofits who will serve in a clearinghouse capacity – matching family and community – while providing direct assistance to all those who are in need in our community year round.

To help with this effort in our community you can –

- ♦ Fairfax County's website has an up to date, comprehensive list of resources available to Katrina victims relocating to our area – www.fairfaxcounty.gov/emergency/katrina/ or 703-817-7771 (hotline)

- ♦ Fairfax Families Care (www.fxfc.org) and Volunteer Fairfax (www.volunteerfairfax.org) will accept pledges of money, housing, jobs and volunteer resources which will then be directed to the Regional Service Coordinators, which includes Reston Interfaith.

- ♦ Reston Interfaith will receive direct referrals from Red Cross and Fairfax County, along with resources pledged by our generous community, to match families with community and ensure that long-term assistance is available.

For more information go to those websites or www.restoninterfaith.org, or contact Gail Roberts at 571-323-9560 or gail.roberts@restoninterfaith.org to see how you can help.

We readily admit that this is not comprehensive, and we apologize for the many activities that we have not highlighted. Please continue to communicate all of your efforts in support of those affected by Katrina. Send updates to pjlee@thediocese.net. (Peter Lee)

A Prayer For Guidance

O God, by whom the meek are guided in judgment, and light riseth up in darkness for the godly: Grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what thou wouldest have us to do, that the Spirit of wisdom may save us from all false choices, and that in thy light we may see light, and in thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pre-school Corner

September brought the beginning of the pre-school's thirtieth year! The teachers and staff members once again welcomed new and returning students to the friendly environment downstairs. In the first week, the children learned about the school and its rules. In week two, they participated in learning about a warm fuzzy topic – bears. Teddy bears, polar bears and brown bears were the subject of study in the math room (counting and graphing bears), the art room (painting bears and making bear headbands), the quiet room (reading "Corduroy"), and in music (singing the old favorite, "The Bear Went Over the Mountain"). The children worked with the fall theme of apples in the last week of September and studied the story of Johnny Appleseed.

A group of parents met to discuss fundraising plans for the new school year. The group decided to repeat the most successful fundraisers from last year, including: selling Entertainment books in October, participating in a Barnes and Noble book fair in November, and ordering products through Original Artworks in the spring. The school also will host "Spirit Nights" at various area restaurants in the second half of the year. Please watch this space for further details on these and other events. As always, the school welcomes your participation and support!

Christian Education Corner

Children's Chapel and Sunday School returned to the halls of St. Timothy's on Sunday, September 18th at the 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. services, respectively. Children's Chapel will once again be headed up by Carol van Evera and her faithful volunteers. The Sunday School teachers were commissioned at the 11:00 a.m. service and then led their young charges to the classrooms for the first lessons of the new school year.

Meanwhile, Senior High Seminars - A New Look for Christian Education is on its way! St. Timothy's is home to a large number of high school students who are active participants in our parish activities - education, service and fellowship. Like many of us, however, these young adults are being asked to balance their spiritual needs with school, work and other extra curricular activities.

One way to address that need is to structure our Sunday School for high school so that it better reflects the interests and time commitments of our teenagers...thus, a new program entitled "Senior High Seminars." Structured in 4-6 week blocks, the new Seminar series offers a choice in topics and meeting times to expand Christian Education opportunities for this important group in our parish.

Youth met during a planning brunch session in September to firm up the schedule and seminar themes. The first series, which meets at 10:45 am on Sundays, September 25th and runs through October 30th. Entitled, "Are You There God?" - this discussion focuses through a current events 'lens' to find God's presence in our lives. All 9th through 12th grade youth interested may still attend. Sr. High Seminar meets in the Upper Loft (through Henry Hall).

Finally, the first Youth Group meeting of the new school year was held on Saturday, September 24th and is a service project for the Youth.

As always, Christian Education can use YOUR help in continuing to teach and encourage the children of the parish. If you are able to donate even one occasional Sunday to help with either Sunday School or Children's Chapel, we would love to have you!

Sexual Abuse Prevention Workshops

Plan now to attend during the Fall, the Child Sexual Abuse Prevention workshop sponsored by the Diocese in this area.

The workshop will be held:

Wednesday, October 19th, from 6:00 to 10:00 pm, at St. Timothy's, Herndon (in the narthex)

This training is required of all paid staff in any Episcopal facility.

Protection of Creation

Yes, we are all stewards of creation, but we also must be protectors of this same creation. Currently, there are plans to drill more wells in more wildlife and wilderness areas than in recent memory. For example, the Artic National Wildlife Refuge in Alaska is, once again, the target of oil companies and corporations wishing to drill for more oil there. Even the area known as the Valle Vidal in the Rocky Mountains of northern New Mexico (adjacent to, and used by, the Boy Scout's Philmont high adventure base) is now under consideration for hundreds of oil wells (spaced approximately one-quarter mile apart and connected by a grid of gravel roads). This area has been a pristine wilderness used by thousands of young people learning valuable life lessons through living the outdoor code and now it may become a giant oil drilling field marring the landscape and creating problems for the adjacent lands. There are many things you can do – write your elected officials, join and support an environmental or conversation organization. For additional and simple actions you can take, go to sierraclub.org/sierra/nylls for advice and suggestions. For the Valle Vidal area specifically, go to <http://www.philstaff.com/vallevidal1.html> or go to Google and search under “Philmont Valle Vidal”. Your efforts will go a long way to protect wild places and spaces!!

Welcome to Our Coffee Hour

The parishioners of St. Timothy's enjoy hospitality and fellowship following Sunday services during coffee hour. The coffee hour is set up in Henry Hall for all to enjoy. This is a great time to get to know others and learn more about St. Timothy's. Even the children have fun. Many years ago a Sunday school teacher shared that one of her student said his favorite part of coming to church was “happy hour”! It is happy indeed.

The church provides coffee and supplies but we need everyone's help to provide snacks and other food items. It would be so helpful if every family could host one coffee hour per year.

The members of the Hospitality Committee ask that you consider hosting a coffee our. A sign-up poster is located in Henry Hall. Sign up to celebrate a family member's birthday, an anniversary, etc. It is always fun to celebrate while enjoying the company of fellow parishioners.

If you have not hosted a coffee hour and would like assistance, please call Beth Lumnitzer at (703) 262-0403 or Hollis Colie at (703) 787-0272. Also, if you would like to host a coffee hour but do not have enough time, please let us know. We are willing to “set up” and “break down” if you can provide the refreshments.

Thank you,

Members of the Hospitality Committee

Editor's Comments: Our prayers go out to the victims of the Gulf coast. Congratulations to our rector for his elevation to Dean of Region V in the VA diocese. We have just learned that Rev. Kedron will be leaving us on Oct. 23. She has taken a position with the Episcopal Relief & Development group in New York. We wish her well and will certainly miss her perky personality and great sermons. Winter is approaching and we all will have to learn to conserve energy and wear warm sweaters.
