Saint Timothy's Mission Statement

AS PEOPLE OF GOD, WE JOYFULLY WORSHIP GOD, SPREAD THE WORD OF GOD'S LOVE, TREASURE ALL PEOPLE, AND SERVE OTHERS EVERYWHERE IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST.

THEREFORE, WITH GOD'S HELP, WE: OPEN OUR DOORS TO EVERYONE,
OPEN OUR HEARTS IN WORSHIP, OPEN OUR EYES TO THE SPIRIT'S GIFTS, AND OPEN OUR ARMS TO EMBRACE GOD'S WORK.

Information For Our First Time Guests

All children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary during worship. However, for parents of children ages 0-3 years who want nursery care, we have a well-equipped and professionally-staffed nursery at the end of the hall nearest the Sanctuary. Each child brought to the nursery is given a number; only the parents of the child can take the child from the nursery. If a parent is needed during worship, the child's number will appear (in red LED's) on the black panels beneath the hymn boards on both sides of the Chancel. Parents, please bring diapers, any snacks, and formula as needed for your child.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament. If you have not been baptized, please come to the Altar rail for a blessing during Holy Communion (place your arms across your chest to signify your desire for a blessing). If you would like to be baptized, please speak with the clergy after the service. To receive Holy Communion, accept the bread in your hand and place it in your mouth, then sip wine from the Chalice when it is brought to you (guide the Chalice to your mouth please), or hold the bread, dip it in the wine when the chalice comes to you, and place the bread with wine in your mouth. If you are allergic to wheat or are gluten intolerant, please let the person serving bread know to give you a rice wafer.

Staff

Regular church office hours are 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Monday - Thursday and 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. on Friday. If you would like to make an appointment to speak with a member of the clergy, feel free to call the office at 703.437.3790.

First Reading

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

The Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

No one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body-- Jews or Greeks, slaves or free-- and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

John 20:19-23

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Sermon

The Rev. Leslie E. Chadwick, Associate Rector

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

*the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.*

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

*the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.*

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,

and his kingdom will have no end.

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

The Prayers of the People

Leader: Holy, Wondrous Spirit of God - ever present, all around us and in us, we now pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Indomitable Spirit of life, for the world you have created, for the great number and wildly varied creatures who live on this beautiful planet with us; for earth, air, water, and landscapes of heart-quickenning beauty; help us cherish and protect your creation and creatures. Spirit of life, we pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Spirit of serenity and peace - for men, women, and children decimated by poverty, hatred, tyranny, and war; whose survival every moment is tenuous; give us wisdom and courage. Help us stand firm against injustice, determined to promote reconciliation and an equitable distribution of life-giving resources. Spirit of peace, we pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Unfettered and swirling Spirit of health and wholeness, for people who are sick or injured, who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; for the victims of fires, floods, storms, and other natural disasters; make us quick to help our neighbors in distress. Spirit of health and wholeness, we pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Sacred Spirit of mercy and grace, we remember loved ones who have died, and people who are dying now; help us see in death the gate to eternal life, and live every moment given to us with the hope that conquers fear and the faith that defeats despair. Spirit of mercy and grace, we pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Flaming Spirit of love and mystery, inspire and guide us; increase our faith and compassion. Bind your Church in Gospel truth; make us faithful witnesses, passionate servants, and fearless agents of God's grace. Spirit of love, we pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Gracious Spirit of provision and abundance; we acknowledge the constant and immeasurable blessings we receive from you every moment of our lives. We thank you. Help us to be generous with all that you have given us. Spirit of provision and abundance, we pray to you.
(Pause)

Leader: Sovereign Spirit of surprise and wonder - Great Creator, Blessed Redeemer, Giver of new life - ever doing new things; make us aware of your presence and responsive to your good will, for the honor and glory of God: Spirit of surprise and wonder, we offer our selves to you.

(Pause)

Leader: Spirit of God, Spirit of Jesus Christ, may our hearts overflow with hymns of thanks and praise, our minds overflow with truth and charity, and our lives overflow with forgiveness, love, and generosity. Spirit of God, Spirit of Jesus Christ, we pray to you. Amen.

The text is provided below for those who would like to reflect on it as the choir sings.

*Spirit of the Lord, come down,
Spreading your protective wing
over all that you have made,
Over ev'ry living thing.
Come in stormwind, cleansing fire,
Sweeping through a world unclean,
Come in ev'ry gentle breeze:
Breath of God, unheard, unseen.
Holy Spirit, blessed Light,
Guide and strengtben mind and will;
Comfort ev'ry grieving heart,
And our inmost being fill.
Through the Father and the Son,
By whose blood our life was bought,
Fill our empty hands with gifts:
Come with grace unearned, unsought.*

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Hymnal S 129

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Timothy and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Fugue in E-flat BWV 552

Johann Sebastian Bach

Notes about the Music from Filippa Duke

The Fugue in E-flat (BWV 552b) was one of only a handful of pieces that Bach saw published in his lifetime. In 1739, the third book of the Clavier-übung (Keyboard Practice) was published. This work is widely thought to contain some of the most complex music for organ ever written. It is sometimes called the German Organ Mass because the movements in the collection are well-known sections of the Mass (Kyrie, Gloria, Creed, etc.) and it is bookended with the Prelude and Fugue in E-Flat. This is one of the few preludes and fugues that scholars know were actually intended to be played as a pair!

Many scholars talk about musical symbolism in Bach's work, and this fugue is one of the clearest examples of Bach's true genius- his ability to weave theological ideas into the fabric of amazingly complex and beautiful music. The fugue in E-Flat is rife with symbolism of the number three, which depicts the Holy Trinity. For example, the piece's key signature, E-flat, contains three flats. Additionally, the fugue is a triple fugue, meaning there are three different fugue subjects, or themes, that have their own character and are eventually woven together. The first fugue represents the Father, and is a solemn, stately fugue in the Stile Antico (Old Style) of composition. This fugue represents the majesty and timelessness of God, the Father. (It also sounds remarkably like today's final hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" sung to the tune St. Anne, thus it has been called the "St. Anne Fugue".) The second fugue has a running figure with a chiasmic (cross-shaped) shape when notated and represents God, the Son. The final fugue is a dance form that symbolizes the dance of the Holy Spirit. The dance form was a forward looking compositional technique and shows Bach's mastery of newer types of styles. In the final moments of the piece, all three of the fugue subjects are combined to show how God, the Spirit, combines all three natures into one God.

Another interesting, yet more obscure, fact, is that the first fugue has 36 measures, the second has 45 and the final has 36. The length of these three sections has been linked to the Golden section, or "proportio divina." This ratio is a pleasing ratio found throughout art, architecture and nature.

After each piece Bach wrote, he noted "SDG JSB" (Soli deo gloria Johann Sebastian Bach) which is translated, "For the glory of God, Johann Sebastian Bach). Each time, I play Bach, I am reminded of his famous quote, "Where there is devotional music, God with His grace is always present." May it be so this Pentecost Sunday!

Christian Education Youth Survey

In preparation for the 2014-2015 school year, a Christian Education Strategic Planning Committee has been put together to review of our Christian Education programs. Our first area of review is our youth programs. We are seeking insights from parents and youth that may enable us to improve our program. We ask parents and youth to take a few minutes to discuss the questions below.

1. How often does your youth attend the Rite 13 or J2A class? How often does your youth attend the youth group meetings/events?
2. What do you know about the current Rite 13 and J2A programs? What do you know about the Youth Group?
3. What is your youth's favorite part about the programs? What is their least favorite part?
4. What are your expectations from Christian Education and Youth Group at St. Timothy's?
5. What are your youth's expectations from attending Christian Education and Youth Group?

Thank you in advance for giving consideration to these questions. We also welcome any additional comments. A committee member will be calling* families of youth in grades 6-12 between the dates of June 9 – July 1 to gather your feedback. We know your time is precious, so we will do our best to keep the discussion brief.

If you prefer, you can email your comments to christineb@saint-timothys.org*
