Information For Our First Time Guests

All children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary during worship. However, for parents of children ages 0-3 years who want nursery care, we have a well-equipped and professionally-staffed nursery at the end of the hall nearest the Sanctuary. Each child brought to the nursery is given a number; only the parents of the child can take the child from the nursery. If a parent is needed during worship, the child's number will appear (in red LED's) on the black panels beneath the hymn boards on both sides of the Chancel. Parents, please bring diapers, any snacks, and formula as needed for your child.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament. If you have not been baptized, please come to the Altar rail for a blessing during Holy Communion (place your arms across your chest to signify your desire for a blessing). If you would like to be baptized, please speak with the clergy after the service. To receive Holy Communion, accept the bread in your hand and place it in your mouth, then sip wine from the Chalice when it is brought to you (guide the Chalice to your mouth please), or hold the bread, dip it in the wine when the chalice comes to you, and place the bread with wine in your mouth. If you are allergic to wheat or are gluten intolerant, please let the person serving bread know to give you a rice wafer.

The Fourteenth Sunday After Pentecost

Holy Eucharist: Rite I

Prelude

Fugue in D major

Dieterich Buxtehude

The Word of God

At the tolling of the bell, all stand.

The Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect of Purity

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Venite

*Come, let us sing to the Lord;
Let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving
And raise a loud shout to him with psalms.*

*For the Lord is a great God,
and a great King above all Gods.
In his hand are the caverns of the earth,
and the heights of the hills are his also.
The sea is his, for he made it.
and his hands have molded the dry land.*

*Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee,
and kneel before the Lord our maker.
For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.
Oh, that today you would harken to his voice!*

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee, mercifully grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the same Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading

Exodus 14:19-31

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, "Let us flee from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against Egypt."

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the LORD tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the LORD did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the LORD and believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 114

- 1      Hallelujah!
- 2      When Israel came out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,
- 3      Judah became God's sanctuary and Israel his dominion.
- 4      The sea beheld it and fled; Jordan turned and went back.
- 5      The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like young sheep.
- 6      What ailed you, O sea, that you fled? O Jordan, that you turned back?
- 7      You mountains, that you skipped like rams? you little hills like young sheep?
- 8      Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob,
- 9      Who turned the hard rock into a pool of water and flint-stone into a flowing spring.

The Second Lesson

Romans 14:1-12

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God.

We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written,

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

The Gospel

Matthew 18:21-35

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People    Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Peter came and said to Jesus, "Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus said to him, "Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.

"For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, 'Pay what you owe.' Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?' And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People    Praise be to thee, O Christ.

People It is meet and right so to do.

Celebrant

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God. Who by water and the Holy Spirit hast made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth thy glory in all the world. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts:

Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.

Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel.

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord; By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. #### Renovation of Our 1870 Tracker Pipe Organ Would Mean We Would Have A “New” Instrument?

When reputable pipe organ builders and restorers refer to renovating a pipe organ they are indicating that the manual chests and other parts will be releathered, new wooden trackers with threaded wires/hand adjustable nuts will be installed, and old worn gaskets replaced. Those 1870 Tracker parts that are viable and appropriate will be kept. Essentially, the insides of the organ are restored to its original quality. Mr. J. Allen Farmer, a North Carolina restorer, recently stated about our J.D. Moore organ, “It’s really amazing that with all of its leaks, bad repairs and worn parts it produces sounds that are full, rich, warm and inviting to the listener. Is this organ worth preserving? Can it become a viable and reliable church organ? In my opinion, most definitely, yes.” Mr. Eliot Freese, a maintainer and restorer of organs, wrote the following after playing and inspecting the organ, “The history of the organ is very like that of the transformation of a human being; for surely we all possess a marvelous inner life that requires images of the divine to be recalled, and to come into the world for service through service. As we begin this discussion of the restoration of your instrument, let us observe at least seven ways in which the organ in your sanctuary is a manifestation of the spiritual life: authenticity, continuity, inspiration, humanity, universality, longevity, and organic.”

Mark Your Calendar For September 20 at the Virginia Theological Seminary!!

Virginia Theological Seminary is partnering with the Diocesan's Stewardship of Creation Committee to create a one-day workshop that tackles both the big questions (climate change) and the practical questions (addressed during the afternoon breakout sessions). With an imaginative program of experts (UVA's Professor Willis Jenkins is addressing the issue of the ethical and religious dimensions of climate change and VTS's own Ragan Sutterfield is on the panel) and practical workshops (for example, Denise Swinsky from America Disposal Services will address the topic “Recycling – Right and Wrong”), this program connects ethics with action! The workshop will take place on Saturday September 20, 2014 at Virginia Theological Seminary (3737 Seminary Road, Alexandria, VA 22304), 10 - 3:30 (Registration opens at 9:30, cost is $15 which helps cover the cost of the "sustainable" lunch). To register or for more info visit <http://caringforgodsscreation.net/Conferences/2014-Conference/>

Note: Craig Dubishar (St. Tim's Steward of Creation) has purchased two extra Conference registrations for use by any member of the congregation. First come, first serve (text Craig at 703.850.1751).

Commissioning of Christian Education Teachers (9:30 & 11:00 a.m. Services Only)

Clergy says – Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus, we are all baptized by the one Spirit into one Body, and given gifts for a variety of ministries for the common good. Thus, we commission these people today as teachers in the name of God, and of this congregation. And we thank God for the special ministry of education to which they are called.

Sponsors (Christian Education Ministry Leaders) – We present these persons to be commissioned to the ministry of teaching in St. Timothy's.

Clergy asks the sponsor – Are these people prepared by a commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord, by regular attendance at worship, and by the knowledge of their duties as teachers, to exercise their ministry to the honor of God, and the building up of this Church?

Sponsor – We believe they are.

Clergy then says – Brothers and sisters in Christ you have been called to the ministry of teaching the Good News in this congregation. Will you, as long as you are engaged in this work, teach with love, patience, and faithfulness?

Candidates – I will.

Celebrants – Will you faithfully and reverently carry out the duties of this ministry to the honor of God, and the benefit of God's people?

Candidates – I will.

Clergy to the congregation – Will you who witness this commissioning do all in your power to support these persons in their ministry in Christ?

Congregation – We will.

Clergy – Let us pray.

Almighty God, giver of all good gifts, you have blessed us with the joy and care of children: Give us calm strength and patient wisdom as we bring them up, that they may learn to love what is just, true, and good, following the example of our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

In the Name of God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - I commission you as teachers in this parish. Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
