Information For Our First-Time Guests

We invite you to fill out a Welcome Card in the pew rack in front of you or on the podium in the Narthex. Please place the completed card in the offertory plate or give it to an usher.

Children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary, or they may head downstairs for Godly Play after the reading of the Collect. For your convenience, there are also rocking chairs located at the back of the sanctuary to soothe the little ones and worship bags with quiet activities in the Narthex.

We invite you to share in Holy Communion. To receive, come forward and kneel/stand at an open space on the altar rail. Both bread (gluten free available on request) and wine (either sip from the chalice or allow the chalice-bearer to intinct) will be offered. If you don't wish to receive, we invite you to come forward for a blessing. Please indicate that by placing your arms across your chest.

The Lessons

A Reading from Jeremiah 28:5-9

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet."

Reader: Here what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18 Spoken responsively by the half verse

1 Your love, O Lord, for ever will I sing; *

from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.

2 For I am persuaded that your love is established for ever; *

you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.

3 "I have made a covenant with my chosen one; *

I have sworn an oath to David my servant:

4 'I will establish your line for ever, *

and preserve your throne for all generations.'"

15 Happy are the people who know the festal shout! *

they walk, O Lord, in the light of your presence.

16 They rejoice daily in your Name; *

they are jubilant in your righteousness.

17 For you are the glory of their strength, *
and by your favor our might is exalted.

18 Truly, the Lord is our ruler; *
the Holy One of Israel is our King.

A Reading from Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

Sequence Hymn 601

Oh Day of God, Draw Nigh

St. Michael

Holy Gospel: Matthew 10:40-42

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple-- truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

Sermon

The Rev. Will Lee

The Nicene Creed (EOW 53-54)

People: We believe in one God,

the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man;

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried;

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel, or stand, as you are able.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor: For peace throughout the world

People: and that God's justice may guide relations between nations.

Intercessor: For the holy church of God,

People: that it may grow spiritually united and live out the values of the Gospel in good times and in bad times.

Intercessor: For all bishops, priests, deacons,

People: that they worthily preach the Word and administer the Sacraments.

Intercessor: For the nations of the world,

People: that they may act justly in their relationship with one another

Intercessor: For all who hold executive, legislative or judicial power in our nation, state and community,

People: that they may exercise their authority to ensure that all people are treated with due process of law.

Intercessor: For immigrants in our own country and throughout the world,

People: that they may know God's love through our ministry to them.

Intercessor: For the poor, for refugees, for the oppressed, for those who have lost health care, for victims of war and for the unemployed,

People: that we may redouble our efforts to stand by them and seek justice for them.

Intercessor: For the sick, their families and those who care for them,

People: that they may know God's healing touch.

Intercessor: For the dead, the dying and their loved ones,

People: that they may know God's comfort and peace.

Intercessor: For us and our community,

People: that united in love with St. Timothy and all the saints, we may grow in loving acceptance of all God's creation.

Celebrant adds a concluding collect

Confession of Sin (EOW 56)

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins to God.

All: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Absolution (EOW 56)

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

The Peace (EOW 56)

Celebrant: The peace of the Christ be always with you.
People: And also with you.

Offertory Sentence
The Offering

Anthem Grace arr. Mark Hayes
(Glenn Rudolph & Joe Weeden, duet)

Please stand as you are able.
Presentation Hymn Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow Duke Street

The musical score is written for four voices on a single staff, using a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are: 'Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Fa-ther, Son and Ho-ly Ghost.' The score ends with a double bar line.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise him above, ye heavenly host:
praise Fa-ther, Son and Ho-ly Ghost.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

The Sanctus (S 130)

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

Schubert/Proulx

Please kneel or stand as able.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with Timothy and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The bread is broken. Silence is kept.

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church

LAY EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS NEEDED

St. Timothy's is looking for more LEMs to volunteer at the altar during services. No prior experience is required.

LEMs assist roughly once every 4-5 weeks and participate in readings, prayers, and serving communion.

Volunteers will receive training prior to serving.

If you're interested or have questions, please reach out to Danny Wechtenhiser at mrvnnk9@verizon.net and/or Kristie Rudolph at kristie.g.rudolph@gmail.com.

- Help students start off the year right by participating in the Service Ministry's back-to-school drive! This year we will be collecting backpacks suitable for high school students (the most in demand). Stores like Costco, BJ's, Target and Walmart usually have these items in good supply. Items may be brought to the church on Sunday's or during weekday office hours and will be delivered to Cornerstones in late July. Here's what we need and when:
- Fifty brand new backpacks (without wheels) measuring 17-19" in height.
- Bring your backpacks to St. Timothy's on Sundays starting July 5th and concluding July 26th. You may also drop off during St. Tim's office hours. We will have a large bin in the Narthex for collection.
- If you have an Amazon Prime account Amazon account, you may also purchase backpacks online and have them shipped directly to St. Tim's @ 432 VanBuren Street, Herndon, VA 20170. Here is an example of a backpack suitable for a high school student: <https://a.co/d/0fVdgL6P>
- If it's easier, we will be happy to shop for you using the church's tax-free Amazon account. Simply make out a check to St. Timothy's with Service Ministry on the memo line and place it in the offering plate or bring it to the church office. You may also donate through the church's secure credit card portal at the following link: Service Ministry Fund
- The Service Ministry appreciates the good people of St. Timothy's who put their faith to work for those in need in our community! Questions? Write to service@saint-timothys.org or speak with a member of the Service Ministry.

Summer Hymn Sing Returns July 26th!

What's your favorite hymn? Find it and be ready to call it out - we are having a hymn sing! On Sunday, July 26, in place of the sermon at the 8:00 and 10:00 services, we are going to sing St. Timothy's favorite hymns. Try to stump the organist with a request from our blue hymnal (1982) or the green supplement (Wonder, Love, and Praise).

Have your choice ready - any season, any theme, any time! If you found your request is in our blue hymnal or green supplement, you've already done your homework and there's nothing more you need to do. If you have a hymn you're dying to sing that's not in our Episcopal repertoire, please email Todd at music@saint-timothys.org and he will make it happen.
