Information For Our First-Time Guests

We invite you to fill out a Welcome Card in the pew rack in front of you or on the podium in the Narthex. Please place the completed card in the offertory plate or give it to an usher.

Children are welcome to stay with parents in the Sanctuary, or they may head downstairs for Godly Play after the reading of the Collect. For your convenience, there are also rocking chairs located at the back of the sanctuary to soothe the little ones and worship bags with quiet activities in the Narthex.

We invite you to share in Holy Communion. To receive, come forward and kneel/stand at an open space on the altar rail. Both bread (gluten free available on request) and wine (either sip from the chalice or allow the chalice-bearer to intinct) will be offered. If you don't wish to receive, we invite you to come forward for a blessing. Please indicate that by placing your arms across your chest.

A Note on Enriching our Worship, the liturgy that we have been using during the Summer at 10 am.

From the Episcopal Church website:

(EOW is a) collection of supplemental liturgical materials prepared by the Standing Liturgical Commission (1997) and published by Church Publishing. It includes resources and forms for Morning & Evening Prayer, Order of Worship for the Evening, the Great Litany, and the Holy Eucharist. The canticles and prayers represent the recovery of ancient biblical and patristic images, including the identification of Christ with Wisdom and language for God that does not use familiar masculine terms. The liturgical texts reflect the influence of the prayer experience of women, and a desire to honor that experience while remaining faithful to the norms of liturgical prayer as received by the Episcopal Church.¹

The Lessons

A Reading from 1st Kings 3:5-12

At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, “Ask what I should give you.” And Solomon said, “You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?”

It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, “Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you.”

Reader: Here what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:129-136 Spoken responsively by the half verse

129 Your decrees are wonderful; *

therefore I obey them with all my heart.

130 When your word goes forth it gives light; *

it gives understanding to the simple.

131 I open my mouth and pant; *

I long for your commandments.

132 Turn to me in mercy, *

as you always do to those who love your Name.

133 Steady my footsteps in your word; *

let no iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Rescue me from those who oppress me, *

and I will keep your commandments.

135 Let your countenance shine upon your servant *

and teach me your statutes.

136 My eyes shed streams of tears, *

because people do not keep your law.

A Reading from Romans 8:26-39

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified.

What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written,

“For your sake we are being killed all day long;
we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.”

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

Sequence Hymn 513

Like the Murmur of the Dove's Song

Bridegroom

Holy Gospel: Matthew 13:31-33,44-52

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus put before the crowds another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened.”

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“Have you understood all this?” They answered, “Yes.” And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”
anyone with ears listen!”

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

Hymn Sing

The Nicene Creed (BCP 326)

People: We believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man;
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried;
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son;
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Please kneel, or stand, as you are able.

The Prayers of the People

Intercessor: For peace throughout the world

People: and that God's justice may guide relations between nations.

Intercessor: For the holy church of God,

People: that it may grow spiritually united and live out the values of the Gospel in good times and in bad times.

Intercessor: For all bishops, priests, deacons,

People: that they worthily preach the Word and administer the Sacraments.

Intercessor: For the nations of the world,

People: that they may act justly in their relationship with one another

Intercessor: For all who hold executive, legislative or judicial power in our nation, state and community,

People: that they may exercise their authority to ensure that all people are treated with due process of law.

Intercessor: For immigrants in our own country and throughout the world,

People: that they may know God's love through our ministry to them.

Intercessor: For the poor, for refugees, for the oppressed, for those who have lost health care, for victims of war and for the unemployed,

People: that we may redouble our efforts to stand by them and seek justice for them.

Intercessor: For the sick, their families and those who care for them,
People: that they may know God's healing touch.

Intercessor: For the dead, the dying and their loved ones,
People: that they may know God's comfort and peace.

Intercessor: For us and our community,
People: that united in love with St. Timothy and all the saints, we may grow in loving acceptance of all God's creation.

Celebrant adds a concluding collect

Confession of Sin (EOW 56)

Celebrant: Let us confess our sins to God.

All: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Absolution (EOW 56)

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

The Peace (EOW 56)

Celebrant: The peace of the Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider: All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

The Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

Llanfair

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and God of might,
Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please kneel or stand as able.

Presider: Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

All: Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Presider: Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with blessed Timothy and all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Presider and People: Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The bread is broken. Silence is kept.

ST. TIMOTHY'S
DRIVE

- Help students start off the year right by participating in the Service Ministry's back-to-school drive! This year we will be collecting backpacks suitable for high school students (the most in demand). Stores like Costco, B.J.'s, Target and Walmart usually have these items in good supply. Items may be brought to the church on Sunday's or during weekday office hours and will be delivered to Cornerstones in late July. Here's what we need and when:
- Fifty brand new backpacks (without wheels) measuring 17-19" in height.
- Bring your backpacks to St. Timothy's on Sundays starting July 5th and concluding July 26th. You may also drop off during St. Tim's office hours. We will have a large bin in the Narthex for collection.
- If you have an Amazon Prime account Amazon account, you may also purchase backpacks online and have them shipped directly to St. Tim's @ 432 VanBuren Street, Herndon, VA 20170. Here is an example of a backpack suitable for a high school student: <https://a.co/d/0FVdgl6P>
- If it's easier, we will be happy to shop for you using the church's tax-free Amazon account. Simply make out a check to St. Timothy's with Service Ministry on the memo line and place it in the offering plate or bring it to the church office. You may also donate through the church's secure credit card portal at the following link: Service Ministry Fund
- The Service Ministry appreciates the good people of St. Timothy's who put their faith to work for those in need in our community! Questions? Write to service@saint-timothys.org or speak with a member of the Service Ministry.

SEMIQUINCENTENNIAL
LECTURE #6

AMERICA

250

As the United States celebrates its 250th birthday this year, Charles+ will offer a series of talks throughout the year that take a look at the intersection between faith and our nation's history. Join us Sunday July 26th, in Henry Hall at 9 AM (also online). This month: THE GILDED AGE!

Here's how you can help:

Spread the word. We still have openings for the fall, and personal recommendations are the number one way families choose a preschool. If you know a family with young children, please tell them about St. Timothy's Pre-School. You can also post a flyer at a local business, display a yard sign for a few weeks, or share information in your neighborhood Facebook group, HOA newsletter, or community email list. Just contact the Pre-School office and they will help.

Support our Scholarship Fund. Your gift helps ensure that families experiencing financial hardship can still provide their children with the caring, high-quality early education that St. Tim's offers. Every contribution, large or small, helps strengthen both our preschool and our church's ministry to the community.

Come to a special service on Sunday July 19th to meet our new director, talk with the Board, and celebrate our Pre-School!

Thank you for helping St. Timothy's Pre-School continue its tradition of welcoming, nurturing, and educating young children. Together, we can ensure that this extraordinary ministry continues to flourish for generations to come.

Preschool Registration

St. Timothy's Pre-School

Established 1975

As you know, St. Timothy's Episcopal Church is home to a thriving preschool that is celebrating its 52nd anniversary this year. For more than half a century, St. Timothy's Pre-School has welcomed young children and their families, making it one of only a few preschools in Fairfax County that have served the community continuously for over 50 years. That is a remarkable legacy, and one we can all be proud of.

This year also marks an exciting new chapter as we welcome our new Director, Allison McMullin, who is eager to build on the strong foundation established over the past five decades.

The Pre-School recently wrapped up a fun-filled Summer Camp. Our campers "traveled" the world, learning about different countries before diving under the sea to explore ocean life. The halls were filled with colorful flags, snorkels, seashells, laughter, and plenty of imagination!

St. Timothy's Pre School continues to offer a developmentally appropriate, play-based program. We are blessed with an exceptional teaching staff, remarkably low staff turnover, and loyal families who help create a caring community that is truly an extension of our church.

Like many preschools throughout our region, however, enrollment has declined in recent years. This isn't unique to St. Timothy's—it's a challenge facing early childhood programs across Northern Virginia. It also means that every new family matters, and we all have a role to play in helping our preschool thrive for the next 50 years.
